

Of Sound Mind: with Nina Kraus

Tuesday, June 25, 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Harold Washington Library Center
400 S. State St.
Chicago Authors Room, 7th Floor

Embark on a sonic odyssey with Northwestern Professor and Neuroscientist Dr. Nina Kraus as she unravels the remarkable symbiosis between the ear and the auditory brain in processing sound. Drawing from her groundbreaking 2021 work, Of Sound Mind, Dr. Kraus illuminates the intricate processes by which the auditory system deciphers sound, unveiling the profound impact hearing has on our cognitive faculties and emotional landscapes.

Ask your librarian
or visit chipublic.org
for more information.

Follow CPL   